FREE fundraising training for BAME & Faith-based organisations

NCB is offering two days of free fundraising training this March

These free courses will increase your understanding of what funders and commissioners are looking for in organisations and applications, improve your confidence and application skills and help you to start thinking outside the box in relation to funding.

4 March
London

Preparing yourself for contracts, commissioning and long-term survival

11 March
Manchester

Writing better funding applications

We are offering a bursary for travel and accommodation for these events, to eligible organisations.

To book visit: www.ncb.org.uk/vss/training__events.aspx and visit our fundraising training pages.

Further information about the event and bursaries contact Sarah Fullegar, sfullegar@ncb.org.uk or tel: 0207 833 6845.
